

Epiphany Prayer:

O almighty and everlasting God, who manifested Your Son, Jesus Christ, to the wise men of the East as the light to lighten the Gentiles, You have made Your only begotten Son to be both the glory of Your people Israel and the light to lighten the Gentiles. You have prepared Your salvation for all people. You have established Your Church on earth as the keeper and dispenser of the means of grace, that Your kingdom might come to all men and that Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. I boldly ask that I be so endued with Your Holy spirit that my joy in the Anointed One increase, that I may give glory to You, and that by all I say and do I may freely confess Your mercies among unbelievers. Let Your Church shine as holy Zion, that the Gentiles may come to her light and nations to the brightness of her rising, and that they with us and the whole host of heaven may praise You and Your most holy name, and live forever in Your presence in light and glory everlasting, through Your dear Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.
